Waterfront
Kota Kinabalu

Citadines Waterfront Kota Kinabalu (CWKK) a premier hospitality establishment under Ascott Limited, officially opened its doors first quarter of last year offering contemporary, fully furnished hotel apartments. What sets this property apart is its unique dual-key capabilities, allowing room types to seamlessly transform into 2–3-bedroom unit if required.

With less than 15-minute drive from Kota Kinabalu International Airport, the property offers point-to-point airport transfers, making it a breeze for jet setters. The hotel also stands for it strategic point where it is insanely convenient to get by to attractions such as the Gaya Street fair on Sundays, the Handicraft market, Jesselton Duty Free outlets as well as the Jesselton Jetty which is the point that gets to you Sabah's most treasured islands for sea activities.

For those seeking a relaxing and comfortable stay, potentially to also experience a little of the trending Jeju Island vibes with the fisherman's port right across the hotel – especially for Korean series enthusiast, CWKK definitely offers that perfect blend of convenience and charm.
